

Personal Devotion and Prayer

Response Group

Annika Looser Grönroos – 11th December 2020

- Hi, my name is...
- I come from...
- And if I could leave the new normal, the first thing I would do is...

Outline

First unit – Reflection and prayer

Second unit – Share

Third unit – Consolidation

Fourth unit – Joint finish

First unit – Reflection

During the past week, what are the two things that have occupied my mind the most?

First unit – Prayer

Ask God how today's message speaks into these two areas that have occupied your mind during the past week?

“So give your servant a discerning heart...” (1 Kings 3,9)

Like Solomon, ask God to bless you with a discerning heart.

Second unit – Share

If I was to sum up what I have heard tonight, this is what my sentence would sound like: “.....”

(Please unmute your mic and share your sentence.)

Third unit – Consolidation

How can I find something worth living for?

And what does a life of purpose look like?

Why is servant leadership part of a purposeful life?

What's my biggest dream in life, and what is God dreaming about?

Third unit – Consolidation

What talents has God gifted me with? And how have I used them so far?

Might there be undiscovered talents? Ask God this question in prayer!

Third unit – Consolidation

Moses clearly was out of his comfort zone when God called him. How do you face doubt, insecurity and fear?

Have you ever avoided doing something you felt God was calling you to do? What excuses did you make? How would you like to respond the next time?

Does God generally call us to do things we are comfortable with (because he has equipped us with gifts)? Or do you think God purposely calls us to do something outside our comfort zone?

Third unit – Consolidation

How would you personally respond to God's question, "What is that in your hand?"

Third unit – Consolidation

What does your identity in God look like?

Why is there a connection between identity and purpose?

After having heard today's message, how do I want to design my new week?
